First Year Notes

Note 1: The General Education First-Year Writing requirement should be completed within the first or second semester.

Note 2: First-Year Experience Requirement: All entering students with less than one year of college experience are required to complete a First-Year Experience (First-Year Seminar (FYSM), a Learning Community (LC), or an Honors College First-Year Experience course) within their first three consecutive academic terms.

Note 3: Sociology majors often complete one or more internships for credit (SOCY 381) during their Junior and/or Senior years, which will count toward your electives in the major. While you should hold Junior status to complete an internship, it is never too early to begin discussing internship opportunities with the Sociology faculty member who is your assigned advisor. You can also complete the not-for-credit Certificate Internship Program through the Career Center.

Note 4: Visit the Career Center to become familiar with the resources it offers and to learn more about different career options that reflect your interests, strengths and goals. The Career Center can also provide advice to you on writing a resume. It is good to start your resume early and build on it during your time at the College so that you are ready for unexpected job openings as well as for career fairs sponsored by the College.

Note 5: Meet with your Sociology advisor each semester.

Second Year
