Course availability may vary from semester to semester. Roadmaps are not meant to cover every possibility. They are intended to provide guidance in planning your academic path. Roadmaps should be reviewed in consultation with your advisor.

- Students with English 102 credit (3 credit hours) must complete English 110 (4 credit hours) or 215 (3 credit hours).

Note 4: Students who complete ENGL 110 in Semester One may begin taking courses for the major (ideally ENGL 201, 202, or 207) in Semester Two.

Third Year Notes

Note 1: ELFC concentrators take eight courses beyond the three introductory 200-level surveys and ENGL 299. These consist of

- 2 Area Requirements (Pre-1800 and Difference)
- 2 Open Electives
- 3 Focus Courses
- 1 Capstone Course

With the exception of the Capstone Course, which must be taken in the first or second semester of the fourth year, the order in which students take these courses will be determined by their particular goals and interests. To reflect this flexibility, upper-level courses are designated in this roadmap simply as “ENGL 300+.” For more detailed information, students should consult their advisors, the catalogue, the English Major Advising Worksheet, and Degree Works.

Note 2: Consider studying abroad during your third year. Many programs offer courses that will transfer in as 300-level English courses. See the Associate Chair of English if you plan to study abroad.

Note 3: Consider pursuing an internship in your third or fourth year. You can earn credit toward the English Major with your internship by registering for ENGL 495, an online practicum for students with internships.
